

k-love has been instrumental in my life, strenthening me in difficult times. Uplifting, informational, the lost to this community would be hard felt and discriminative in nature. If k-love were not available to keep the christian community informed on current events and points of interest, there is no other station similar in content to serve the christian community in my area.